

President & Founder of Show Me the Way Foundation Receives the 2006 Eclectic Vision Award

For Immediate Release

For more information, please contact:

Angela Watts

Director of Communications

678-637-0982

angela@familiarfaces-inc.com

Atlanta, GA – August 10, 2006 – WOW! Productions recently honored Show Me the Way Foundation for their work in the Atlanta community by presenting them the 2006 Eclectic Vision Award.

“It is a great honor to receive such a prestigious reward from such a great organization who we share a similar mission with...”said Tashawnya Menefee, Founder and President of Show Me the Way Foundation.

Mrs. Menefee founded the organization in 2003. Show Me the Way Foundation is a non-profit organization who aspires to provide mentoring, educational and positive group activities for youth affected/infected with HIV/AIDS or other health disparities. Our goal is to instill confidence, perseverance, leadership and knowledge by uplifting spirits, providing advice and guidance, and factual information on health awareness.

Menefee currently works for the Centers for Disease Control as the National Study Coordinator. Her job description requires her to coordinate HIV/AIDS and TB studies throughout the United States, analyze data from studies, work with patients that are infected with HIV/AIDS and TB and administer test.

To obtain more information about Show Me the Way Foundation, you can call 1-800-928-5251 or visit their website at www.showmethewayfoundation.org.

###