THE WAY FOUNDATION FOR WORLD'S AIDS DAY

Houston's Finest Sports Bar Donates Proceeds' to Benefit Show Me the Way Foundation in Recognition of World's AIDS Day

Atlanta, GA – December 1, 2006 - World AIDS Day is not just about raising money, but also about increasing awareness, fighting prejudice and improving education. World AIDS Day is important in reminding people that HIV has not gone away, and that there are many things still to be done.

UNAIDS estimates, there are now 40 million people living with HIV, including 2.3 million children, and during 2006 some 4.3 million people became infected with the virus. Around half of all people who become infected with HIV do so before they are 25 and are killed by AIDS before they are 35.

In recognition of World's AIDS Day, Houston's Finest Sports Bar opens its doors in style by teaming up with Show Me the Way Foundation to bring you world- renowned jazz violinist Ken Ford on Friday, December 1, 2006. Your admission will include a lavish complimentary buffet and a night of cool, sweet jazz! Partial proceeds will benefit HIV/AIDS programs offered by Show Me the Way Foundation. For more information about Ken Ford performance tonight, please call: 678-512-0213.
